1. Read the following passage and answer the question given below it :

Each one of us, as we leave school, has a flame to carry, which we have to pass on to others. We have been given knowledge and skill. These we pass on, by using them, in the service of our country. If we do not use them, it means that we are letting the flame go out and none of us wants to do that. But if we are going to be able to keep alight the torch that has been given to us, we have to know, how to hold it as we run. In other words, we have to train ourselves for citizenship and for service of our country
