HIGH SCHOOL EXAMINATION,(2019)

Section A

1. A chain is as strong as its weakest link. Each one of us is a link in the chain that is, our country. If we are weak and poor citizens, our country will suffer, even though we may try to comfort ourselves with the false idea that it does not make any difference what one person does in such a large country, where so many people live. But if one candle goes out, then in that one place there is darkness instead of light. It is when all the candles burn lightly, the whole house will be full of light.

23. But suddenly a strong wind began to blow and along with the rain very large hailstones began to fall. These truly did resemble new silver coins. The boys, exposing themselves to the rain, ran out to collect the frozen pearls.

"It's really getting bad now," exclaimed the man. "I hope it passes quickly." It did not pass quickly. For an hour the hail rained on the house, the garden, the hillside, the cornfield, on the whole valley. The field was white, as if covered with salt. Not a leaf remained on the trees. The corn was totally destroyed. The flowers were gone from the plants. Lencho's soul was filled with sadness.

45. Socrates lived in Athens about four-hundred years before Jesus Christ was born. As a boy he was ugly, undersized and had a flat nose and bulging eyes. His father was a poor stone-cutter, so he was always rather shabbily dressed. This strange creature with the short neck and plain face was a thoughtful child. He watched his companions all the time and allowed very few things to escape his notice.

As he grew older he began to think very little of bodily comfort and pleasure. He gave his mind to all that was noble, honourable and just.
