BOOKS - UP BOARD PREVIOUS YEAR

INTERMEDIATE EXAMINATION , 2019

English Only Paper 316 Dg Section A

1. My arms were full. I had no room, let alone any need, for another basket. Balancing my baskets and fans on my left arm, I reached into my right coat pocket and got a handful of change perhaps fifteen cents in all-which i deposited in the basket that the young girl held imploringly before me. I tried to explain that I could not buy the basket but extended the gratuity as a substitute. I realised at once what offence I had given. This child of nine, dressed in rags and on the edge of starvation, raised her chin, reached into the basket, and with all the pride and graciousness of a lady handed the money back to me.

English Only Paper 316 DI Section A

1. In this world of human affairs, there is no worse nuisance than a boy at the age of fourteen, He is neither ornamental, nor useful. It is impossible to shower affection on him as on a little boys and he is always getting in the way. If he talks with a childish lisp, he is called a baby and if he answers in a grown-up way, he is called impertinent. In fact any talk at all from him is resented. Then he is at the unattractive growing age. He grows out of his clothes with indecent haste, his voice grows hoarse and breaks and quavers, his face grows suddenly angular and unsightly. It is easy to excuse the shortcomings of early childhood but it is hard to tolerate even unavoidable in a boy of fourteen.

उत्तर देखें

2. In ancient times, our women had the ceremony of upanayana performed for them. They were entitled to study of Vedas. They were also entitled to the chanting of the gayatri japa. All these things were open to our women. But our civilization became arrested and one of the main signs of that decay of our civilization is the subjection of women.
