INTERMEDIATE EXAMINATION,(2017)

English First Paper 322 Nq

1. Explain with reference to the context one of the following passages :

Politically and economically India faces many problems of great difficulty, and no one can forecast her future with any certainty. But it is safe to predict that whatever the future may be, the Indians of coming generations will not be unconvincing and self-conscious copies of Europeans, but will be men rooted in their traditions, and aware of the continuity of their culture.

उत्तर देखें

2. Explain with reference to the context one of the following passages :

Passion is not power, it is the abuse of power, the dispersion of power. Passion is like a furious storm which beats fiercely and wildly upon the embattled rock, whilst power is like the rock itself which remains silent and unmoved through it all.

उत्तर देखें

3. Explain with reference to the context one of the following passages :

The people I saw in India - those in the village as well as those in high office-have both pride and a lively sense of decency and citizenship. They also have a passion for independence.

उत्तर देखें

4. (a) Today there are few Indians, whatever their creed, who do not look back with pride on their ancient culture, and there are few intelligent Indians who are not willing to sacrifice some of its effete elements so that India may develop and progress. Politically and economically India faces many problems of great difficulty, and no one can forecast her future with any certainty. But it is safe to predict that whatever the future may be, the Indians of coming generations will not be unconvincing and self-conscious copies of Europeans, but will be men rooted in their traditions, and aware of the continuity of their culture.

What are the two types of Indians?

 उत्तर देखें

5. (b) I'm not demanding type. I'll do the best I can for John under any circumstances. Just the same I wish he would give me a few breaks, slim down a bit, take regular exercise, relax a little more, cut down on fats and smoking. If he would only do these things, I could keep on working for John for a long time.

The word 'T' has been used five times in the passage. Who is this 'I'?

3. Explain with reference to the context one of the following passages :

We have heard that the chief purpose of education is not merely the acquiring of skill or information but the initiation into a higher life, initiation into a world which transcends the world of space and time, though the latter informs and animates the former.

उत्तर देखें

4. (a) Many people complain that they have broken down through over-work. In the majority of such cases the breakdown is more frequently the result of foolishly wasted energy. If you would secure health you must learn to work without friction. To become anxious or excited, or to worry over needless details is to invite a breakdown. Work whether of brain or body, is beneficial and health-giving and the man who can work with the steady and calm persistency, freed from all anxiety and worry, and with his mind utterly oblivious to all but the work he has in hand, will not only accomplish far more than the man who is always hurried and anxious, but he will retain his health, a boon which the other quickly forfeits.

What is cause of breakdown in some people according to the writer?

उत्तर देखें

5. (b) In ancient times, our women had the ceremony of Upanayana performed for them. They were entitled to a study of Vedas. They were also entitled to the chanting of the Gayatri japa. All these things were open to our women. But our civilization became arrested and one of the main signs of that decay of our civilization is the subjection of women.

After Independence, through the exertions of Mahatma Gandhi, a revolution has been effected in our country, and women are coming into their own.

How do you know that our women had a high place in ancient India?

5. (b) The platforms were packed with people—Sikhs, Muslims, Hindus, soldiers, merchants, priests, porters, beggars, hawkers. Almost everyone was barefoot and dressed in loose white garments. I would ask at least three people before I could find one who spoke English. We would talk world affairs and every major topic the news of the day produced. In this way I was trying to get a feel of the pulse of the nation, checking opinion against official attitudes and reports.

How were the people on the platforms dressed?
